Amelia Ann Adams Whole Life Center (AAAWLC) Mission & Vision:

We sow seeds in our own backyard: We cultivate change and healing that transforms communities to move families from surviving to thriving.

Our vision is building community through relationships based on LOVE, FAITH, and COMPASSION.

Americorps & AAWLC

This is an enriching opportunity to help vulnerable communities address public health needs, especially those exacerbated by the COVID-19 pandemic. Together Toward Health (togethertowardhealth.org) is a statewide initiative to stop the spread of COVID-19 and strengthen health and resilience in California's most impacted communities. Together Toward Health (TTH) is supporting California's response to COVID-19 and reduce inequities in highly impacted communities. TTH is committed to ensuring the broad cultural and socio-demographic diversity of California is reflected in the community-based partners that have experience engaging with disproportionately impacted communities. We are seeking members to serve on-site or remote with the community-based organization Amelia Ann Adams Whole Life Center (AAAWLC) in Stockton, CA. AAWLC connects families to resources and addresses the barriers to families living a resilient life. Current efforts include case management, healing services, youth programming, youth development, and food Distribution and support for families needing assistance due to the impact of COVID-19. This opportunity will provide key skills in logistics, organization, coordination, and interpersonal communication. Members are also part of a statewide member learning community through The Center for Health Leadership and Practice at the Public Health Institute (PHI), the largest AmeriCorps VISTA sponsorship in the Western Region. This community includes ongoing support from VISTA Leads and a monthly series of professional development opportunities, workshops, networking events, and trainings.
